

THE EDIT
SOUTH BANK

Home to arbiters of good taste

DISCREETLY TUCKED AWAY IN SOUTH BANK SE1, THE EDIT IS WHERE ARBITERS OF GOOD TASTE COME HOME.

Here, curation is at the heart of everything. Handpicked interiors feel authentic to London, yet distinctive at the same time. The concierge service is a cut above – a team of Curators with insider knowledge of the city's most coveted experiences and hidden gems. And the carefully designed amenities make staying in as tempting as going out. With only 95 residences, The Edit offers a truly personalised lifestyle.

South Bank is London at its most vibrant. Iconic sights, famous art collections, bustling restaurants and world-class universities are within walking distance. At The Edit, you are a local in one of the most cosmopolitan neighbourhoods in the world.

Central London's cultural heart

Always evolving

Stretching along the southern bank of the River Thames, directly across the water from Westminster and Covent Garden, South Bank seamlessly bridges history and modernity. This was once London's powerhouse with the Bankside Power Station supplying electricity to the city. Today, that historic building houses Tate Modern, a symbol of the area's transition into a cultural and commercial hub, and South Bank's emergence as the home of good taste.

Tate Modern.

Bancone, Borough Yards.

From day to night

South Bank has an eclectic character. The art galleries and theatres sit alongside sleek office towers where global businesses reside. As the sun sets, the riverside comes alive with vibrant restaurants and bars drawing in the discerning crowd. From red carpet events at the British Film Institute to Tate Lates, there's always somewhere to be or something to see. And The Edit is at the centre of it all.

MONMOUTH COFFEE Sourced from single farms and locally roasted in London, this coffee is made to be savoured.

Morning essentials

A morning in South Bank can be as peaceful or as energised as you want it to be. The Thames Path is just five minutes from your front door; enjoy a long stroll along the river with iconic views of the London Eye, St. Paul's Cathedral and the Houses of Parliament. Claim a window seat and people-watch in one of the many artisan cafés. Or get together with friends for brunch and coffee.

WatchHouse Bermondsey

Housed in a 19th-century watchhouse, this brick-walled café serves up fantastic coffees, sandwiches and sweet treats.

Bread Ahead Bakery

Famous doughnuts with seasonal flavours, artisan sourdough and buttery pastries.

The Table Café

Award-winning brunch restaurant championing sustainable cooking.

Origin Coffee

Speciality coffee shop tucked beneath the railway arches.

BOROUGH MARKET At this historic market, traders from across Britain and the world champion great quality produce.

Conveniently next door

Living in South Bank means having everything you need within walking distance. Like Borough Market, London's oldest food market where you can pick up fresh, seasonal ingredients directly from the source.

Or work out, either at your private residents' gym powered by Peloton, or on the tennis court at SE1 Tennis down the road. London's many running clubs meet in South Bank too, for a jog by the river with iconic views along the way.

Neal's Yard Dairy

A wide selection of artisan cheeses from across the British Isles, expertly matured on-site.

Tian Tian Market

Shop over 10,000 food and lifestyle products from across Asia.

Brindisa

Ibérico and Serrano hams carved at the counter, cheeses, olives and other Spanish delights.

London City Runners

Social runs along the Thames on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Sunday mornings.

SE1 TENNIS Tucked away among towering skyscrapers, SE1 Tennis provides coaching for everyone from beginners to pros.

Seasonal collections

Few cities in the world can rival London's shopping scene. Browse over 300 shops at Covent Garden, from big names like Jo Malone, Mulberry and Tiffany & Co. to more boutique brands. Or check out the latest collections at Ralph Lauren, Chanel and Bottega Veneta on Bond Street, only 6 minutes away from Southwark Underground station. For unique finds, head to Bermondsey Square Antiques Market, a Parisian-style market, or the scenic South Bank Book Market with vintage books sold on the riverfront.

Tate Modern.

Creative inspirations

The Edit puts you at the heart of London's art scene. Tate Modern, the Hayward Gallery and White Cube all have fantastic year-round programmes. For world-class theatre, head to the National Theatre, discover new talents at the Young Vic, or travel back in time at Shakespeare's Globe.

The Southbank Centre, Europe's largest centre for the arts, is another unmissable culture hotspot that hosts close to 5,000 dance, music and theatre events a year. Our Curator team always knows what's on, so you don't miss a thing.

Flavour profile

Whether you're looking for an intimate setting, collecting Michelin stars or craving authentic international cuisines, London has it all when it comes to dining. Many of the city's best restaurants are within strolling distance or just a few tube stops away from The Edit.

When you've found your favourite, our Curator team will be happy to book a table for you.

Bancone

Savour fresh pastas and signature negronis in this atmospheric restaurant under the arches.

Seabird

Expertly prepared seafood and soaring views from the 14th floor.

José Tapas

An authentic Spanish restaurant with a daily menu and wines and sherries by the glass.

Wright Brothers Borough Market

Famous seafood bar with fresh oysters and crisp wines.

Berenjak Borough

An eccentric space serving Persian classics from the streets of Tehran, made for sharing.

Tasting notes

The city's been serving libations for centuries, so going for a drink in London can feel like travelling back in time. To feel the history for yourself, walk over to Borough High Street for a pint at the George Inn, a favourite haunt of Charles Dickens. Award-winning Lyaness, right on the river, is at the vanguard of cocktail culture and a staple on the world's best bars list. And over the bridge is the Savoy Hotel's American Bar, an institution with global appeal since 1890.

GÖNG

Touch the sky at the highest bar in London with its own swimming pool, set on Level 52 inside The Shard.

Lyaness

This must-visit bar regularly features on the World's 50 Best Bars list for its cutting-edge creativity.

Atrium Bar

A slice of New York in London, NoMad's bar puts a fun spin on the classics.

Lahpet Larder

Burmese classics and innovative cocktails in modern, airy interiors.

Bedales of Borough

Watch the world go by as you sample global wines on the balcony.

Intimate venues

For the evenings when you feel like escaping the bright city lights, head over to the candlelit 19th-century Gordon's Wine Bar across the river. Here, you can sample port and sherries straight from the barrel in an atmospheric vaulted cellar that hasn't changed much in the last 130 years. Or whisper the password at the hidden entrance of a speakeasy, where you can claim a quiet booth.

CACHE CACHE SPEAKEASY

A modern-day, decadent speakeasy hidden in the heart of Covent Garden.

The central London advantage

All roads lead to home when you live at The Edit. Tube, train, river boats – all Zone 1 transport options are on your doorstep and the best of London awaits on foot or cycle.

Master the trade

London is one of the most important business hubs in Europe. The City of London, just across the river from The Edit, is where the London Stock Exchange is located, along with the world's largest banks and insurance companies. Canary Wharf is home to financial giants and the London Innovation Centre for life sciences research. And King's Cross has become London's biggest tech hub, with Google UK, Facebook and Samsung opening offices there.

A rare opportunity

Over the past decade, luxury residential development in prime central London has shrunk by 70%. With the number of new homes decreasing and the demand remaining strong, The Edit presents a rare investment opportunity in this sought-after area.

Zone 1 connections, proximity to top universities and business hubs, and an ever-growing array of bars, restaurants and entertainment make South Bank an equally attractive address for your main residence or a central London pied-à-terre.

High status living

68% of households in Southwark are described as 'high status city dwellers living in central locations and pursuing careers with high rewards' (based on Experian's MOSAIC Group A: City Prosperity).

A boutique address in central London

Presenting The Edit

Rising 22 storeys high along the Low Line, where Victorian rail viaducts connect Bankside, London Bridge and Bermondsey, The Edit adds a contemporary landmark to a thriving location. The design reflects the energy of this ever-evolving neighbourhood – echoing South Bank’s architectural heritage while confidently leaving its own mark. New landscaping designed in partnership with the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, will add a pocket of nature, continuing the great tradition of London’s hidden gardens.

Inside, 95 artfully crafted apartments are a masterclass in refined living with The Edit being London’s first residential development to offer high-quality appliances throughout the building from Swiss brand V-ZUG. All apartments have a private balcony and as a resident, you’ll also have access to the exclusive No.9 club with a gym powered by Peloton, sauna and ice bath, working lounge and a private terrace. Here, everything is designed to elevate your experience.

Nestled among landmarks

No.9

No.9 is your holistic destination for wellness, fitness and work. Keep active in the fully equipped gym, powered by Peloton. Find ultimate relaxation thanks to the outdoor sauna and ice bath. Enjoy a moment of calm on the private terrace overlooking the South Bank. Or get some work done in the beautifully designed working lounge.

YOUR PERSONAL CURATOR

The Curator team is at the very heart of The Edit. More than a traditional concierge, these brilliant insiders are your personal key to unlocking London's treasures.

Personal best in fitness

We've partnered with Peloton to create a complete fitness experience, at home. Equipped with the latest Peloton bikes and Tread machines, this space brings world-class workouts directly to you. The gym also features a selection of free weights, punching bags and strength training equipment, for a variety of workouts.

BRASS MONKEY ICE BATH Clear the mind with a cold plunge in the ice bath with patented technology allowing the temperature to reach 0°C.

SUNLIGHTEN MPULSE SMART SAUNA The world's only dynamic sauna that offers pre-set programmes to target the health benefits you want.

Reset body and mind

Stronger immune system, improved mental health, quicker recovery and better sleep. These are just a few health benefits of the hot and cold circuit. At The Edit, you have access to a state-of-the-art Sunlighten mPulse Smart Sauna, which allows you to customise your wellness session, and a reinvigorating Brass Monkey ice bath. Enjoy deep relaxation and a multitude of restorative properties without leaving home.

In the zone

This thoughtfully designed working lounge helps you focus with a choice of comfortable seating to suit every work style, from banquette seating to private booths to allow full concentration. Plus, there's a coffee station on hand to re-energise as needed.

Your hidden London hangout

For work or studying, socialising and unwinding – the 9th-floor private terrace with sweeping views is the perfect retreat in the city. Enjoy a choice of spaces, from more relaxed lounge areas to comfortable table seating, immersed in lush planting.

A celebration of individuality

Crafted and refined, the interiors at The Edit harmoniously flow from space to space, from morning to night. Here, details make all the difference. From the tile pattern in the bathroom to the high-performance V-ZUG appliances, handpicked specification sets these homes apart, bestowing them with unmistakable character.

Sense of space

The living room skilfully captures and sculpts natural light, shifting with the day. The engineered wood flooring and floor-to-ceiling glazing encapsulate classic elegance with contemporary design. Contrast details and statement handles set the tone for the curated experience throughout.

Savouring the moment

In the kitchen, natural timber and black finished cabinets provide a dramatic contrast to the neutral colour tiles. From the walnut floating shelving to the antique brass taps, every element blends beauty with functionality.

Swiss perfection at home

The Edit is London's first residential development to offer high-quality appliances from V-ZUG throughout the building.

This luxury Swiss brand has been crafting state-of-the-art products for over a century, artfully blending innovation with sustainability. The intuitive design makes daily tasks effortless, and the high-precision settings balance humidity and temperature to preserve nutrients in your dishes. Powerful and reliable, these appliances are also beautiful to look at. The sleek, minimalist aesthetic has a timeless appeal that seamlessly integrates with any interior style.

V-ZUG stands behind its products with an extensive ten-year warranty, expert support and personalised guidance. Regular software updates automatically add new functions, so your appliances stay ahead of the curve, years after purchase.

Pursuing better, differently

London specialist

We've spent over 30 years focused on London, creating outstanding places where people can thrive. Focus means we can commit, we can do that bit extra, so we can spend more time designing, refining and delivering homes people love, in places they want to live.

Crafted, not cookie-cutter

No two Mount Anvil developments are the same. Yes, you'll see Mount Anvil hallmarks such as clean, uncluttered elevations, vibrant public realm, and mechanical equipment hidden in the basement rather than on the roof. And, each of our developments are as individual as the communities that they're in.

Positive partnership

Our business is based on repeat partnerships, and put person, place and planet first. By jointly working with our partners, we can amplify the positive impact of the places and homes we co-create, delivering a healthy, low carbon and prosperous future for London.

Our team

90% of our people are also shareholders in our business, so there's more pride poured into every project. And with our project directors having, on average, more than 25 years' industry experience each, your home is in safe, reassuring hands.

Mount Anvil,
better London living

Customer focus

At Mount Anvil, we're committed to making your home buying experience as effortless as possible. Your personal Customer Experience Manager will be there to answer anything and everything you ask about your new home. This focus on customer satisfaction is why 97% of our customers would recommend us to family and friends.

Award winning

The ultimate accolades for us are happy customers, who want to keep coming back to Mount Anvil. But we aren't averse to the industry celebrating us either. We have won awards for our design, culture, partnerships, health and safety, customer care and sustainability.

In partnership with Riverside

With a shared aim to transform lives and revitalise neighbourhoods, Mount Anvil are proud to partner with Riverside on The Edit, South Bank. Riverside is one of the UK's leading not-for-profit social housing and regeneration organisations, owning or managing over 76,000 homes from Irvine to Kent. They are a leading provider of supported housing services, particularly for those affected by homelessness, and their track record of transforming lives and revitalising neighbourhoods dates back over 90 years. They are committed to building more affordable homes over the next decade. For more information visit www.riverside.org.uk

TERMS & CONDITIONS

The information in this document is indicative and is intended to act as a guide only as to the finished product. The finished product may vary from the information provided. These particulars should not be relied upon as statements of fact or representations and applicants must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise as to their correctness. This information does not constitute a contract or warranty. The dimensions given on plans may vary within a tolerance of 5% and are not intended to be used for carpet sizes, appliance sizes or items of furniture. All furniture shown is indicative only, all planting on balconies and terraces are shown for decorative purposes and do not form part of the specification. All kitchen layouts are indicative only and subject to change. Please note: to increase legibility these plans have been sized to fit the page. As a result, each plan may be at a different scale to others within the brochure.

The Edit is a marketing name and will not necessarily form part of the approved postal address. Applicants are advised to contact Mount Anvil to ascertain the availability of any particular property. Your attention is drawn to the fact that in rare circumstances it may not be possible to obtain the exact products or materials referred to in the specification. Mount Anvil reserve the right to alter, amend or update the specification, which may include changes in the colour, material or brand specified. In such cases, a similar alternative will be provided.

Mount Anvil reserve the right (whether through the planning process or otherwise) to increase the height and/or elevation and/or massing or otherwise (including accommodation) of any block in the development. You'll be regarded, when making a reservation, as being aware and accepting this. This means you'll be expected to accept any consequential change in outlook or amenity because of such changes. Computer generated images and photography are indicative only and subject to change. Ceiling and wall lighting shown in computer generated images, not included in the specification, are for decorative purposes only. Travel times are approximate and calculated via Google.
